My Paper Year isn't afraid the man who once practiced 10,000 kicks, but I fear the man who practiced a kick 10,000 times. - Bruce Lee See also: How to Split NDA Writing Exam in First Attempted NDA Question Sample NDA and Previous Year Paper 2018 2017 2016 2015 2014 2013 2012 2011 2010 2009 NDA Online Comparison Test : Why Is NDA Is Better Than IIT? Beyond any skeptics, NDA Writes Quiz is tough. The final selection ratio is highly unusual, only 3 out of 4000, or 1 out of every 1333 aspiring to choose. On an average, more than 3 aspirant lakh applied, and only 7000 keys of the exam are written. Finally only 370 or so they choose. So the ratio of final selections comes out to be 0.00123. The odds of final selections are less than even 1%. And previous year's papers and sample papers still proved to be useful to these 1% of students. For the skeptics, it's a fact the question makes repeating every year. If you go to previous year's papers, then you will see how critical they are. Static and dynamic questions asked in the written NDA writing examination can be divided into two categories: Static and dynamic. Static questions are people from books, NCERTS, IGNOU books, standard government publications etc. And dynamic questions are people wondering in actual affairs, daily news, data and figures from the Economic Survey, etc. As far as the content is dynamic concerned, years before paper and sample paper won't be very useful. But the static content revolves around the paper the previous year and there are 60 chances of rehearsals in question every year. In fact, for parts of history, just read the topics carefully which you see in last year's papers, the questions will definitely come from these topics. See also: Best Books for NDA Why Previous Years Are Papers and Paper Samples? As the syllabus of NDA writing exams includes nearly every topic and is sure to take 14-18 months to complete. Unless you have engineering ability to remember each and everything you study, you'll need a great deal of time to review the earlier topics. By practicing previous year papers and sample papers, you can save a lot of time in the review section. Meanwhile, you will learn time management. While practicing the papers, you can analyze your response speed and accuracy. For this to happen, you have to treat the practical papers as test mock. To know the important questions, highlighted those who are repeatedly asked in previous year's papers, then explore these questions and try to predict various models where a questions can be asked. Important: 5 Life saving tips in the Krak NDA SSB Special Methods studying questions from different books provides a wider way of thinking, but this doesn't mean that one should divide attention. Written, lost in questions repeated each year by UPSC, practicing papers last year will help you determine these questions. The following methods will help you practice better: # Study at the moment gives at least 6 to 8 hours a day to study is a non-negotiable condition if you are preparing for NDA. But don't forget to give yourself a break. Long-hour studies can lead to loss of interest in study, so going breaking is necessary. Remember your school day, when everyone uses to keep stars around the clock waiting for their recess. We all need little breaks while doing mental work, they are necessary to help reset and refresh the idea and regain attention. Do the things you love during breaks, like you may have your favorite snacks, or take a walk, or listen to music etc# the days are for convenient and dawn to learn early beds, the happiness of raising, making a healthier man and wise words having a convenient meaning in life. According to a research, people who developed habits to wake up early are more successful in comparison with those who sleep and wake up late. So start working on this habit if you don't have it. And if you do, then spend the dawn time of learning the concepts. Daybreak time is considered the best time to learn something new, so it's the perfect time to get a hold on topics that you are yet to discover. However, daylight should be spent convenient to make preparation strong. This may sound like a very hard routine which all the good it is. But when we dream something great, then sacrifices are necessary. # Stay drastic while preparing for NDA one has to go through fire and water. While practicing previous years on paper and sample papers, the biggest challenge for students is to remain active throughout the time while they study. The urge for distractions starts with a fragile feeling, and then one prefers to take a good sleep or a nice get-together with friends and waste that day. In fact, the right way to deal with this padhne can Mann NHI ho Raha wali feel is to find creative ways to keep the idea active. Create a study environment such as for each of your own choices that can help you in avoiding distractions. Levels of control noise and study under good light. # Your structure makes it absolutely sure to complete the syllabus at least once, before going through the review portion. Grab a schedule for the entire syllabus, and try to stick with it. It is essential to choose an incorrect strategy, not just rely on previous year papers and sample papers. They are important but only when you complete the syllabus. Your study structure, this should be the first step in achieving your goals. # Plan ahead of difference between a medium and an excellent candidate is one goal. Planning ahead at least for the next day is a sign of an engineering and success of people. It will help you maintain the balance between your daily activities and science. Second, know what to do next, keep the idea focused and work efficiently. # Help but is still needing more of you learning, the more you'll get confused, and those who hesitate to clear the confusion during practical times, are suffering later when it's exam time. So make it a rule not to move on the topic that comes in until the current one is not cleared. Don't wait until the last minute, keep help either in books, internet or from your teachers. Nobody can advise you better than the aspirants who have already passed the exam. So if you know someone, then ask him for help. # Master the art of Observing aspirant to prepare for the NDA writing exam must keep copies of the syllabus while practicing previous question papers and sample papers.
